WABCO Transit Receives Purchase Order From Amtrak

WILMERDING, Pa., Feb. 3, 2004 – WABCO Transit, a subsidiary of Wabtec Corporation (NYSE: WAB), has received a new purchase order valued at $1.8 million for the continued supply of new brake actuators for Amtrak’s Superliner II and Amfleet cars. Deliveries will begin in early 2004.

“We are again pleased to have been selected by Amtrak to supply this equipment, which will provide reliable braking and reduce maintenance costs,” says John M. Meister, president of WABCO Transit.

Based in Spartanburg, S.C., WABCO Transit designs and manufactures pneumatic, electronic and mechanical braking devices for the transit industry worldwide.

Wabtec Corporation (www.wabtec.com) is one of North America’s largest providers of value-added, technology-based products and services for the rail industry. Through its subsidiaries, the company manufactures a range of products for locomotives, freight cars and passenger transit vehicles. The company also builds new switcher and commuter locomotives, and provides aftermarket services, including locomotive and freight car fleet maintenance. The company has facilities located throughout the world. Wabtec’s mission is to be judged by its stakeholders as the world-class corporation focused on helping its global customers compete more effectively through higher levels of safety, quality and productivity.
