Wabtec Names New Assistant Vice President Sales, Southwest Region

WILMERDING, Pa., June 23, 2003 – Robert L. Sindelar has been named assistant vice president sales, southwest region for Wabtec Corporation (NYSE: WAB).

“Bob is a welcome addition to Wabtec’s corporate railroad sales force,” said P. Richard Bonadio, vice president, railroad sales. “In this role, he will strengthen the company’s coverage of Burlington Northern Santa Fe Railway (BNSF), Kansas City Southern (KCS), and regional and short line railroads in the southwestern United States.”

Most recently, Sindelar served as strategic account manager for Nexterna, a provider of wireless, web-based field service management solutions for railroads and other industries. Prior to that, he held management positions at OmniTRAX, Harmon Industries and BNSF. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in electrical engineering from Kansas State University and a Master of Business Administration degree from Baker University, also in Kansas.

Wabtec Corporation (www.wabtec.com) is one of North America’s largest providers of value-added, technology-based products and services for the rail industry. Through its subsidiaries, the company manufactures a range of products for locomotives, freight cars and passenger transit vehicles. The company also builds new switcher and commuter locomotives, and provides aftermarket services, including locomotive and freight car fleet maintenance. The company has facilities located throughout the world. Wabtec’s mission is to be judged by its stakeholders as the world-class corporation focused on helping its global customers compete more effectively through higher levels of safety, quality and productivity.
